Cancellation Policy

I understand that there will be times where you or I may be unable to attend our personal training session.

- If I cancel our session with less than 12 hours notice, the session will be made up at a later date, plus you will receive an extra session at my expense.
- I will require 12 hours notice in advance if you are unable to attend our personal training session. If the 12 hour notice is not given, you will still be charged for your personal training session.
- Four weeks' notice will be required for cancelation of your personal training agreement if agreement is "ongoing".
- If cancelling within your agreed term, full payment of remainder of term will be required.

Thank you for your cooperation with the cancellation policy.
